Book of next week: 'The Ugly Duckling'

On Friday 27th March we will have an Easter Bonnet Parade. This will be held in the Academy Hall at 8.45am for AM Nursery and at 1.45 pm for PM Nursery. Children are encouraged to make their own Easter hat at home over the weekend with parents. A REMINDER THAT WE FINISH AT 2.00 PM ON FRIDAY 27TH MARCH.

APPAA NEWS - Don't forget that next Friday is the Spring Tea Party, from 2.00-4.00pm. We are calling all Nursery parents and carers to step up and get baking so we have lots of yummy cakes for the Spring Tea Party. We also need Nursery parents to volunteer selling all the baked goodies. There is also face painting, a lucky dip, arts and crafts and much more. There will be an Easter 'egg' hunt with a twist, FREE of charge for all the children (with yummy edible prizes of course!). Please come along and join in the fun. The funds raised from the event will go towards funding Duckling eggs, caterpillars and library resources.

Dear Parents,

This week in Literacy, we read the story 'The Little Red Hen'.

We discussed how we can be a good friend and acted out the story. The children created hand print Little Red Hens and also made bread.

Earlier this week we had a special visitor from the Dogs Trust and we learnt how to look after a dog and what they need to be happy. We also had a visit from Bow, Genevieve's dog who was adorable.

The biggest excitement of the week was when we saw some farm animals and were able to have a close look at them. It was great fun everyone 😊!

Thank you to Jasper's mummy for reading to us today.

Have a nice weekend!

Miss Kis and the Nursery Team

Attendance and punctuality are important at Ark Priory and we would like to remind Nursery parents that drop off time is 8.30 am and 12.45 pm prompt. The punctuality of PM Nursery has been particularly poor this week and we hope next week there will be an improvement.

	Attendance %	Punctuality %
Nursery AM	94	99
Nursery PM	96	87

Thank you to all the parents who attended the Parent Consultation this week. Your positive feedback is much appreciated!
