Dear Parents,

This week in Literacy, we read the story 'Dinosaur Roar!' Our trip to the Natural History Museum on Tuesday was great fun. We discussed what the dinosaurs looked like and which dinosaur was our favourite.

A big thank you to all the adults who helped us on our trip!

In Maths, we were digging for dinosaur bones and comparing and ordering their length.

We also baked some orange muffins and had an exciting music session.

The children created an enormous dinosaur using junk modelling.

Thank you to Luca's and Nicholas' mummies for coming in to read this week.

Have a nice weekend!
